

CCFSA NEWSLETTER SPRING 2020

Clinton County Farmers and Sportsmen Association

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear CCFSA members,

It is my honor to be serving as your president for a second year. Warmer days are getting more frequent, and warmer weather means more events at CCFSA. Everyone is sure to find something that appeals to them. Warmer weather also means more volunteers are needed to keep the club running. This can be volunteering to help work events or performing improvements and maintenance on workdays.

The key to finding out about all of this activity is to make sure that we have your current email address on file. If you are NOT receiving emails from CCFSA on a regular basis, please confirm that our emails are not going to your spam folder. If you are not receiving them and they are not going to your spam, then please send you current email address to membership@ccfsa.com, with Email Update as the subject line. Also, indicate in the email if you are currently receiving a paper copy of this newsletter and would prefer email delivery.

The Well Armed Woman

At the end of 2019 our ladies had a chance to sit down enjoy each other's company and reflect on the past year. We had our annual TAWW Christmas dinner. We enjoyed those that could make it and missed those that couldn't. It was nice to sit around with good memories, good friends and of course, good food. 😊

January and February should be busy for our ladies. We enjoyed A gun law seminar (open to the public as well) complete with raffle prizes and even a gun giveaway.

February looks promising with two events. Our normal meeting will focus on "Refuse to be a victim" focusing on situational awareness, online safety, avoidance techniques and understanding the psychology of the criminal mindset. Our second event will be a first aid class with emphasis on gunshot wounds. We are looking forward to both events and a busy year ahead!

Hello all!

Cold weather is still here but we can't really fuss about it. We've had a pretty mild winter (so far). I hope you all have your ammo loaded and ready to take full advantage of the club facilities!

The committee will be reviewing the Sponsorship levels and fees and hope to have a new fee schedule ready towards the end of this month. As costs have risen, we find it necessary to revisit them, particularly the range covers. We will present our recommendations at the April Membership meeting. Please try to make the meeting. All input is sincerely appreciated!

Please continue to let us know of any potential businesses of which you may be aware that will want to get in front of our 1,100 plus members and their families and friends. We have sponsorships at several levels starting at $100.00 per year for the newsletter and website with links to the advertisers and they are affordable for every business both large and small. E-mail me at dbientz@cinci.rr.com or call me at 513-313-5436 with any interest, requests for quotes/information on sponsorships or any suggestions. We need to hear from YOU!

See you at the range!
Dave, Sponsorship Chair

CCFSA Legislative

A Florida referendum to ban common shotguns and rifles labeling them as 'assault weapons' failed by a wide margin on the 2020 ballot.

Dean Weingarten of Ammoland reports:

To make it on the November ballot, organizers had to gather 766,200 verified signatures by today. The organizers fell well short with just 147,304, according to the Secretary of State.

The proponents of the measure and the mainstream media touted it as a "ban on assault weapons" supported by a "swelling grass roots" movement in the Sunshine State. If passed, the referendum would have banned virtually all semi-automatic rifles and most semi-automatic shotguns.

The group promoting the failed measure is Ban Assault Weapons Now. BAWN's website has a "Donate" features that links through Act Blue which Weingarten calls "a Democrat/ progressive suckerfunding site." Its advertised address is 6619 S Dixie Hwy #148, Miami, FL 33143, a box in a UPS Store in Miami. It shouldn't surprise anyone that a little investigation found the names of Michael Bloomberg and David Hogg. So much for grass roots.

U.S. Sen. Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) is asking federal agencies to institute more regulations on firearms manufacturers, sellers and gunsmiths so that every part of a firearm would be serialized and registered.

Washington State's House Bill 2240 and Senate Bill 6077 to ban the manufacture, possession, sale, transfer, etc., of magazines holding more than 15 rounds, passed out of committee and could come for floor votes.

Maryland's Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee scheduled a hearing this week for Senate Bill 816 that would put burdensome, costly and even unattainable requirements on firearms dealers.

2/26/2020, Ohio hearings were held on House Bill 381 which offers to remove Duty to Retreat from current law. Also, later that day, House Bill 425 will be discussed and receive comments on a proposal to amend sections 2923.12, 2923.126, 2923.128, and 2923.16 of the Revised Code to modify the requirement that a concealed handgun licensee must notify a law enforcement officer that the licensee is authorized to carry a concealed handgun and is carrying a concealed handgun when stopped.

From the I can't friggin believe this file:

ACLU Agrees: Red Flag Laws Violate Civil Rights

The primary tool anti-gunners have found to get around the Second Amendment is the most controversial – red flag laws. Red flag laws enable ex-girlfriends, neighbors, old bosses, and distant family relatives to get local police to confiscate your firearms without you doing one thing wrong. All they have to do is say they fear you are a danger to yourself and/or others, and you own firearms.

There is no due process. Armed police will enter your home and take your firearms – just like in Nazi Germany.

The totalitarian measure has a singular source: Far-left anti-gunners. Many of them are funded by former New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg and his billions via Everytown for Gun Safety and political funding. Bloomberg and other anti-gunners like him want to disarm civilized society, much like New York City does its most to disarm its law-abiding residents.

While there is a singular source backing extremist laws like red flag laws, a diverse group opposes them. The one uniting principle is a simple and very potent one: Red flag laws violate civil rights. Specifically, they violate the rights to due process, self-defense, and the Second Amendment.

The ACLU cautions against red flag laws and their “impact on civil liberties, and the precedent it sets for the use of coercive measures against individuals, not because they are alleged to have committed any crime, but because somebody believes they might, someday, commit one.” Where this goes only time can tell. The US House of Representatives has approved a bill expanding background checks for all gun sales,
